

The Importance of Wooden Dolls (humans) and the need for more communication from Inner Beings now for the future of earth Sg 14.5.14

This follows questioning by a friend of Saesneggar about the importance of the Wooden Doll in the scenario of the One Energy and Inner Beings

So I am here. Bore Da

I am wanting speak with the friend of you. Your friend who does healing who plays with the what I call the Light Ones, Light Beings. What I have wanting for saying, 'tis that she is not properly understanding. The knowing about the importance of the Wooden Doll is not correct. About all Wooden Dolls, all things.

I will explain now, there is one only, one energy, one thought, one mind you call it. It's many parts, all parts are different. There are many different speeds and power of the energy. That is how I have described the levels, but all are one and all have knowing of each part. It is all the one mind, different parts of one mind. Now, the ones that your friend works with and has love of, they are like you and her and me. They all parts, different parts of one energy. Now, no part is more important than another. I said to her that they (Pleiadians) are a story, for a story is how a man explains of these parts to another man. They are a story, not the truth, but yes the energy forms they all exist, they are all real in different ways. Different energy, cannot be known by your physical apparatus. You cannot feel and see and taste these ones. They are not always in your physical environment. They can sometimes be and sometimes not be. Like any other energies they will cross your environment when they have choosing, when have wanting for it.

Now what I have to explain, is that the physical is important, the Wooden Dolls I call them. The Wooden Dolls are important. She is saying she feels they are not important (after what I said to her). They are very much big important, yes, for the growing, the ever-becoming of your environment, is a part of the ever-becoming of all environments. Many hundreds of environments are all becoming. Your one is all becoming, a part of the all, no different. All. I want you and the friend to look at your environment. There are hundreds and hundreds of different, you call them your beasts and your plants and such like them. Many hundreds - all different, all have influence on the other ones. Now your Wooden Dolls they are the ones through whom we other energies can have most influence on your physical environment. We flow, all energies, we flow the life force, you call it, into all of your beasts and your plants and your Wooden Dolls but most in this moment, the most influence of knowing of what our wanting is, is from your Wooden Dolls. Now the Wooden Dolls have big influence on all of the others in your environment, your beasts and such.

Now that is why it's very important that more of the Wooden Dolls have a bigger pipe to their Inner Being, so there is more influence from their Inner Beings. This is wanted now. 'Tis important for your environment has need for less (I have no word for this) make not dirty but less easy to grow in the moment for the energy created by the Wooden Dolls to sustain their lives (pollution), it has influence on your beasts and your environment. Now there is a bigger energy, you have a name for it, I do not, I will find the name - the word, Zero Point energy. It exists, it's all here, it's all everywhere. It's what I am, it's what you are. When I talk of energy that is what I mean. That is the word that your Man has for it. One day your Man, your Wooden Dolls will know. They will have the knowing to work with this Zero Point Energy and it will be used instead of the energy that you are now using.

It is very good for the beasts and the environment of your living. It helps the growing, the ever-becoming. It (Zero Point Energy) will be easier and faster and less of a problem for it. But it can also be a big problem if it is not properly developed. It can harm the beasts and your physical environment. It can be big harmed. So there is a big need now that the Wooden Dolls all have not the beliefs in the stories of their Mams and Dads. Now they have bigger need for the no stories, but to have bigger pipe for their Inner Being, so the Inner Being can have bigger energy to the Wooden Doll and more influence for the Wooden Doll. This moment is important for Wooden Dolls. All environments have moments when there is great importance and moments when it's not so important. Now in this environment it is very important in this moment that Wooden Dolls start to have bigger pipes. So do not think that Wooden Dolls are not important. They are most important for the becoming of them and their beasts and their environment will develop or not develop because of the Wooden Doll more than all others.
