

Robert's original wording

WAR & RELIGION – the causes of conflict

TG 9.11.14

Saesneggar asked why I am speaking. I wanted to say this. What I want to say is that, when I was alive, all my life, all, even in the trenches, ha, I had a strong faith, always. It made dull my thirst for the truth. Like a baby suckling on silver, ha, that was me. There are many books (religions), many who fear another's book, and there is killing. I do not want this. All Wooden Dolls have an Inner Being. The Inner Being knows them, knows them better than they know themselves. The Inner Being loves them, in joy and in their wrong-doings for learning; all is loved.

I want Wooden Dolls to sit in quiet love of their Inner Being, then they will see the truth, not in a book. No amount of killings can make a book truth, the only truth comes when you sit with your Inner Being. Now, it's not Robert's truth, the truth comes from the Inner Being of each person. As with the beasts and the plants of your environment, there is not one, there are many different ones. All are needed to sustain the environment. It is the same with truth. There is not only one, there is no book, all Inner Beings have the truth of them. All have the growing. Never done, always growing. This is why I want to give this message to reach many people. They have the fearing of other book, they have killing. If humans have no knowing from their Inner Being, but believe in a book, you need to know that it's probable your loved ones will be involved in the killing. This why I have the want of speak. Many have want for speak also. Need for you in now.

Many people were killed because of a book. Many more will be killed. This can only be stopped if the Inner Beings can have the showings of truth. But if the Wooden Dolls have the killing, then the environment can no more have sustain. Saesneggar loves this environment. Robert have love also this, but cannot have doings.

Do you think that if you look at our earth today with all those war activities all over the world, how do you feel about that? Sn 15.4.13

It is very interesting to me to see the difference of a soldier today and my time. I would not think him a soldier at all. To understand and to group and to act on the intelligence. That is a lot of the soldier today. The fighting is not with soldiers. The fighting is with cowards who do not show themselves. They would not wear a uniform. They would hide in a children's school and they would shoot. That is not a soldier.

I know that the majority of the people on your earth, they have learned so much from my time and from the war in between, and the smaller wars later, so for the most part, the people, they do not need war now. The conflict now, it is not with the people, or with their governments now. They have outgrown the useful war. The conflict now it is with the religions, which will not last long. This is just one step, because for the most people, the religions they are not strong in their heart now, and the conflict now, this is serving a good purpose to be the death of how any respect to an old religion.

People would not follow for long now. And that is a major step in the expansion for your environment, and my old environment too, for we are brothers.

Could you explain why people have to do terrible things to each other, and is it only in this environment, or is it going on in other environments that people kill each other and have war? Sn 21.4.13

This is so in this environment and it is not always, but it is many times, it is the fear. We spoke of the scale 1 to 10 and there is much of this as the Inner Being gets knowledge of how to control its Wooden Doll but it cannot compel its doll to do anything or think anything. It can only pass the emotion and the emotion does not always bring the thought that the Inner Being would want. So the Inner Being would then give the stronger emotion to change the doll and the doll's thinking. So the strong emotion, the fear, some moments that fear will be too strong for the Wooden Doll to think properly.

So this is the reason why all these things happen?

It is always, in all of the dolls, it is not to have blame of the doll, it is that the Inner Being has not yet the experience, the knowing of how to flow energy of value and the emotion of value to the doll. But the Inner Being learns here in this slow environment.
